Kristin,

Enjoyed lunch yesterday. We need to touch base often to keep up with everything impacting Little Tokyo. If "touching base" involves enjoying good food in the process, so be it...

On to a more serious note. As promised, I am attaching the preliminary injunction clarification that refers to "Skid Row and surrounding areas." Apparently Little Tokyo (to 2nd Street on the north and Alameda on the east) is considered a "buffer zone." The City Attorney's office apparently agreed to this. I heard about the injunction last year, so the Little Tokyo BID has been complying ever since. What I didn't know was that the case is still ongoing. I thought it was a done deal.
